PIKE & CHANDLER,

Lower Main St. MORRISVILLE, VT.

Salmon Coming March First.

Alvah Glover Salmon, who will appear in Morrisville in the early part of March, is becoming one of the best known pianists in America. His work as teacher, composer and artist is above criticism and thoroughly commendable.

He has played in nearly all the European countries, always with the same high praise, especially in Russia. His work the past year has been especially devoted to looking up some of the lost manuscripts of famous Russian composers and bringing them before the public. The Russian people knew this and gave him crowded houses each night, to hear these beautiful melodies brought back to life through one so artistic and sympathetic.

Mr. Salmon brings his own concert grand piano and will give some of his own compositions, which are extremely beautiful and although of a very high order, are always pleasing and ever tuneful.

The tenth anniversary of Lamoille Grange, No. 233, will be held with Mr. and Mrs. L. N. LeBaron at their residence on Pleasant street this week Friday. The usual dinner will be served and the other features enjoyed at the annual celebration will be in evidence. All Grangers and families are cordially invited.

Dr. Geo. T. Stevenson was called to the farm of Frank Hamel in the south part of the town last Saturday, where he tested the herd of cattle for the state. One cow was found infected with tuberculosis and was killed Monday. The others were pronounced free from the disease. The condemned cow was one that Mr. Hamel was keeping for C. H. Slocum of this place.

A successful term of dancing lessons given by Prof. Geo. Elmore in Morrisville will be brought to a close this week Friday evening by a "public," given by the management at N. E. O. F. hall. Mr. and Mrs. Elmore will furnish music and supper will be served in G. A. R. hall across the road from the dance hall. The grand march will begin at 8:30. Bill for the dance 50 cents a couple; supper 50c per couple.

Grange Lecture.

A fair sized audience met at the Grange hall last Friday evening to hear Prof. L. R. Jones of Burlington speak on "How Plants Live." In connection with his talk he used charts and illustrations, which made his remarks especially interesting and instructive. A special program was also given consisting of piano solos by Misses Lena Irish and Rheunmah Smith, vocal duet by Misses Madge Small and Laura Ellis, a reading by Fred Small, a paper on the temperance question by Miss Bertha Allen. One of the most unique songs of the evening was a duet by Uncle Wm. Small and Aunt Ursula Stowe, who sang an old-time song the way they did years ago. After the program was over R. C. Paul and Miss Irish furnished music for the young people to promenade.

Woman's Club.

Those members of the Woman's Club who were not present at the meeting on Monday evening missed the privilege of hearing two excellent papers, one on Russian Education, written by Mrs. S. C. Cheney, the other written by Mrs. H. A. Slayton, on "The Student Movement," which has been of intense interest to all those who have kept in touch with the exciting conditions pertaining to that revolt. Mrs. Fisk gave an observation paper on seeing things outdoors which brought out some discussion on what we do not see. The next meeting will be held the sixteenth. It is expected that F. G. Flattwood will give some instruction on State Government, and all who wish to avail themselves of his talk are cordially invited to be present, both men and women, boys and girls, as this will be a public occasion. Sometime in March there will be given a concert consisting of Russian and Polish music by an eminent artist secured through the efforts of Mrs. George M. Powers. This will be an exceptional opportunity for Morrisville people to hear a great artist, hear it in mind and do not fail to enjoy this rich treat, notice of which will be duly given.

George A. Morse went to Barre this morning.

J. E. Sullivan of Hardwick was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. S. M. Cutler of Nashua, N. H., is visiting friends in town.

Joseph Cooke, engineer in the stone sheds, is confined to his home on account of illness.

George F. Earle went Monday to New York City, where he will purchase his usually large line of spring goods.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Magoon, which was born last Sunday, died Monday. The funeral was held Tuesday.

Raymond Palmer of St. Albans passed Tuesday night in town, the guest of his brothers, C. E. and Lawrence Palmer.

Wm. M. Clark has gone from Greensboro to Jeffersonville, where he will open a barber shop in the Melendy House.

Miss Azella Goodell, who has been teaching in Lyden, Mass., for some time, has finished her work there and returned home Monday.

Willie Kirkup, who is living at Fred Small's, has gone to Topshfield, Mass., to attend a reunion at Stanwix school, the institution where he came from.

Fred Small visited the asylum at Waterbury Monday. He saw his former college friend, Fred Sharp, who broke down by too much study in college. He also saw Otis Hatch of this town, who is as well as could be expected.

C. J. Slayton sold to Geo. W. Clark last week the West property on Bridge street, which includes the land from the Barnes place to the Mrs. M. A. Stone property, including the building occupied by the Wallace Marble works.

Martin Carlston, who is employed in the grocery store of F. E. Clark of St. Johnsbury, recently passed several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Carlston, at Morristown Corners. He returned to St. Johnsbury Tuesday morning.

Lamoille Grange held a very enjoyable meeting Jan. 29. There was an unusually large attendance. An invitation was accepted from Mr. and Mrs. I. N. LeBaron for the Grange to celebrate its anniversary at their home on Friday, Feb. 6. The next regular meeting occurs Feb. 12. The program consists of a mock Town Meeting.

Mrs. F. E. Hawley is in Jeffersonville to-day to meet her sisters at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Whitcomb. It is the first occasion upon which the daughters of the family have been together for several years. They are Mrs. G. A. Wells of Pike Station, N. H., Mrs. F. E. Hawley of Morrisville, Mrs. M. S. Hawley of Jeffersonville and Mrs. W. G. Atkins of Burlington.

Farmers' Meetings.

Farmers' Meetings are to be held in this county, at Johnson and Morrisville, on Monday and Tuesday of next week, Feb. 9 and 10. The programs are very interesting and good meetings may be expected at both places. Here are the programs:

JOHNSON MONDAY.

AFTERNOON.
Address of Welcome, Hon. R. C. Cristy.
"Some of the Crops to Grow," C. J. Bell, Walden.
"The Dairy Cow," George Aitken, Woodstock.
"Food for the Dairy," Ernest Hitchcock, Pittsford.

MUSIC.
"Foreign Agriculture," George Aitken, Woodstock.
"Agriculture in the United States," Col. J. H. Brigham, Asst. Sec. Agriculture, Washington, D. C.
MORRISVILLE TUESDAY.

FORENOON.
Address of Welcome, C. F. Smith, Esq.
"Some of the Crops to Grow," C. J. Bell, Walden.
"Business Methods in Farming," John E. Gale, Esq., Guilford.

Music.
"Food for the Dairy," Ernest Hitchcock, Pittsford.
Address, Col. J. H. Brigham.
"Vermont Highways," Hon. C. W. Gates, Franklin.

EVENING.
Music.
"Farm Barns," Ernest Hitchcock, Department of Agriculture.

Col. J. H. Brigham.
Dr. H. D. Holton, Secretary State Board of Health, and Prof. Walter E. Ranger, State Superintendent of Education, may be expected to address the meetings.

All are invited, especially the ladies, to be present at all the meetings. At the close of each address an opportunity will be given to question the speaker.

Basket Ball.

The Academy Basket Ball team went to Montpelier last week and were defeated in an interesting game. It was a hot contest from start to finish, and P. A. took their defeat in the right spirit. Montpelier is one of the hottest teams in the state, but play a good clear game. The return game will be played at Morrisville this week Friday evening, Feb. 6. A hot contest is expected. The boys are practicing hard and will put up a lively game. Come out and encourage them. Game called at 8:15.

The Hawthornes Next.

The Hawthorne Musical Club of Boston are the next in the Business Men's Course and will appear at town hall, Morrisville, Thursday evening, Feb. 12. This company is the only one of its kind in America and furnish a program of two hours duration, no two numbers being alike. Not too much classical music, but just enough wit and humor interspersed to make the whole a popular evening's entertainment. Don't forget the date, a week from to-morrow night. Secure your seats early, before the good ones are all taken. Admission 35c. Tickets for the three remaining numbers, which include the famous May Parker's Little Pickaninies can be had for 90c.

A Pleasant Occasion.

Last Saturday evening about forty members of Lamoille Grange met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Sault on Maple street to make them a farewell visit before their departure for Essex Junction, where Mr. Sault has recently entered upon an engagement with the Essex Publishing Co. The evening was pleasantly passed in social intercourse and games. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Sault were presented with a silver card plate, engraved with the name and number of the order. Rev. Dr. Booth presented the present in a very felicitous manner and Mr. Sault responded in well chosen words of gratitude. Mr. and Mrs. Sault have many friends outside the order who regret their departure.

HYDE PARK.

It was a quiet election.
Wm. Maxfield cast the first ballot.
Just 100 votes less cast than in September.

Capt. Waite and Admiral Geo. Randall were ballot clerks.

Miss Lou Collins is home from Lyndon, N. H., on a two weeks' visit.

Miss Gertrude Fife of Wolcott spent last Sunday here with Noyes Wood's family.

A few from here took in the drama, "Broken Bonds" and the dance at Eden Friday evening.

Mrs. Cyrus Prouty of Brighton, Mass., has been a guest at F. P. Hill's the past few days.

Lyman Darlitz and friend, Ralph E. Aiken, of the U. V. M., spent Sunday with friends in town.

The "Coal Strike" is the next question for discussion at the L. C. A. It comes up Friday of next week.

Alba Ferry was in Albany Monday on business. He thinks seriously of engaging in farming the coming season.

Miss Lucretia Campbell of Worcester, Vt., was a visitor here last week.

Rev. C. S. Hager was in Cambridge last Friday and again Monday evening, assisting Rev. Mr. Mohr in religious services.

Irwin Lilley has rented apartments in the Crane mansion on Prospect Ave., and will move his family here from Cady's Falls.

Wilson Leach leaves the last of the week for Troy, N. Y., where he will pursue a course of study at the famous Troy Business College.

Mrs. J. S. Leach and Miss Cora Fairbanks spent Sunday at Essex, with Mrs. Hanley, and on Monday transacted business at Burlington.

Fred Muzzy makes this extraordinary statement: From twenty-two hens of the Rhode Island red breed he received during the month of January 372 eggs.

Monday last, Candlemas Day, was warm and cloudy, and consequently the ground hog couldn't see his shadow. According to the wise ones this means an early spring.

T. C. Cheney of Morrisville has bought of J. T. Stevens the Capt. Kenfield sale, which has been in the Sheriff's office for a number of years. It was moved to Morrisville yesterday.

A preliminary meeting of the Cemetery Association will be held at the home of the President, Mrs. Emma K. Wiswell, Tuesday, Feb. 10, at 2 p.m. All members are requested to be present.

Miss Helen McFarland was given a "surprise" by several of her young friends last Friday evening. The evening was spent in progressive whist with music and social intercourse. It was a very enjoyable affair. Monday evening she gave a tea party.

Judge Sherwin voted for Prohibition fifty years ago and yesterday voted the same way. He saw no reason to go back on the position he took half a century ago. Lester Boomhower and Judge Kelley, other octogenarians, also did likewise.

There were 27 deaths, 31 births and 13 marriages in this town last year, as against 27 deaths, 30 births and 19 marriages of the year previous. The oldest death last year was 92 and the youngest 8 months. Of the deaths there were 11 males and 16 females.

Albert Whitecomb came down to vote on the Referendum yesterday, driving a pair of handsome blacks of which he is justly proud. He is of the opinion that their equal does not stand in Lamoille county and we are almost inclined to believe that he is about right.

Hon. F. W. McGarrick was given a good audience here last Thursday evening, at which time he addressed the people of this place on the subject of high license local option. He handled the subject with unglued hands, and while he criticized prohibition he believed it far better than local option high license. He believed there should be no distinction, that if we have license it should be the same the State over. He refuted the Rutland Herald's assertion that Judge Ross presided at a banquet of the bar association at which liquors were used. He charged the same as a slander upon the worthy Judge. His remarks were attentively listened to and frequently applauded.

A CHECK LIST.—The Selectmen have posted a Check List, to be used at the coming Town Meeting. This is something new for this town; but the law says that towns under 5000 may have a check list to use at March meeting upon petition of twenty legal voters. The petition with the requisite number of signatures was given the Selectmen, and in accordance with the same a list will be used where balloting is required.

Her 81st Birthday.

Mrs. Louisa M. Hill reached her eighty-first birthday last Monday and in honor of the event her son Frank arranged a surprise party for her by inviting several of her old acquaintances to spend the afternoon with her. Those who attended were: Mrs. M. A. Smalley, Mrs. R. S. Page, Mrs. E. Fitts, Mrs. O. A. Griswold, Mrs. C. M. Small, Mrs. E. B. Sawyer and Mrs. Cyrus Prouty. While Mrs. Hill was out making a few calls the party assembled and when she returned she was agreeably surprised to find her friends had invaded the home. After receiving congratulations the afternoon was passed in visitation, concluding with a sumptuous banquet, arranged by Mrs. F. P. Hill, which the "young ladies" enjoyed to a high degree. Madam Hill was the recipient of several gifts from her friends, among which was a "box of candy" so called, but when opened contained eighty-one pennies. "Just like Mrs. Small," said the recipient. With heartiest congratulations and the hope that she would see many more birthdays, the guests departed at a seasonable hour. Mrs. Hill was born in Enosburg, but during nearly all these years has lived here where she has the respect of everybody. She enjoys excellent health, and with her many friends we trust she will see at least a hundred birthdays.
